The biker's little boy: Bless me Father, for I have sinned. I have been with a loose woman." The priest asks, "Is that you, Little Johnny Dugan?" Yes, Father, it is. "And, who was the woman you were with?" "I can't be tellin' you, Father, I don't want to ruin her reputation." "Well, Johnny, I'm sure to find out sooner or later, so you may as well tell me now". "Was it Brenda O'Malley?" "I cannot say". "Was it Patricia Kelly?" "I'll never tell." "Was it Liz Shannon?" "I'm sorry, but I'll not name her." "Was it Cathy Morgan?" "My lips are sealed." "Was it Fiona McDonald, then?" "Please, Father, I cannot tell you." The priest sighs in frustration. "You're a steadfast lad, Little Johnny Dugan, and I admire that. But you've sinned, and you must atone. You cannot attend church for three months. Be off with you now." Matt walks back to his pew. His friend Fred slides over and whispers, "What'd you get?" "Three month's vacation and five good leads," says Johnny.

After a long hot ride Moe walks in a bar for a cold one. As he makes his way through the crowd a man comes running through town screaming, "Run for your lives"! Big Mike's comin"! Suddenly the saloon doors burst open. An enormous man standing eight feet tall and weighing 400 pounds rides in on a bull. Grabbing Moe by the ankle and throwing him over the bar the giant thunders. "Gimme a drink!" Moe hands over a bottle of whiskey, which the giant guzzles in one swig then smashes the bottle on the bar. Moe just looks at the man amazed as he stuffs the broken bottle in his mouth, chews it up and swallows it. "Can I get you another one sir"? Moe says. Naw, I gotta get," the big man grunts."Big Mike's comin'!"

Biker Mike's old lady, Mary goes up to Father O'Grady after his Sunday morning service, and she's in tears. He says, "So what's bothering you, dear?" She says, "Oh, Father, I've got terrible news. Mike passed away last night." The priest says, "Oh, Mary, that's terrible. Tell me, Mary, did he have any last requests?" She says, "Aye, That he did, Father..." The priest says, "What did he ask, Mary?" She says, "He said, 'Please, Mary, put down that damn gun...'"

Sitting on the side of the highway waiting to catch speeding drivers, a State Police Officer sees a car puttering along at 22 MPH. He thinks to himself "This driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!" So he turns on his lights and pulls the driver over. Approaching the car, he notices that there are five old ladies - two in the front seat and three in the back - wide eyed and white as ghosts. The driver, obviously confused, says to him, "Officer, I don't understand, I was doing exactly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?" "Ma'am," the officer replies, "You weren't speeding, but you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can also be a danger to other drivers." "Slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly...Twenty two miles an hour!" the old woman says a bit proudly. The State Police officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that "22" was the route number, not the speed limit. A bit embarrassed, the woman grinned and thanked the officer for pointing out her error. "But before I let you go, Ma'am, I have to ask...Is everyone in this car ok? These women seem awfully shaken and they haven't muttered a single peep this whole time." the officer asks. "Oh, they'll be alright in a minute officer. We just got off Route 119."

"How long have you been driving without a tail light, buddy?" demanded the policeman. The RUB jumped out, ran to the rear of his car, and gave a low moan. His distress was so great that the cop was moved to ease up on him a bit. "Aw, come now," he said, "you don't have to take it so hard. It isn't that serious." "It isn't?" he whined. "What happened to my motorcycle and trailer?"

Farmer John has three sons. One day his oldest comes to him and pleads with him, that he is graduating from school and would really like to get a car. His father says, "Son, come with me!" He takes him to the barn and points to the farm tractor and says, "This tractor is needed for the farm and I promise, as soon as it's paid for, we'll get you a car."
 The boy was not too happy, but he understood and said, "Ok, Dad."
 A week later his second son, (10 yr. old), approaches him wanting a new two wheel bike. Well, he gets the same excuse "...as soon as the tractor is paid for..."
 Shortly after that his youngest is bugging him for a tri-cycle. Again, 'old dad gives him the lecture about the tractor needing to be paid off first.
 While leaving the barn, the young boy, a little disgusted with the whole thing, sees the rooster mating with one of the hens, and promptly goes over and kicks the rooster off the hens back, mumbling to himself.
 His dad says, "Son, why would you do something like that? He didn't do anything to you to deserve that."
 The little boy says "Hey, nobody rides anything around here until that DAMN TRACTOR IS PAID OFF!!!"
