The World of Wheels Show

My Father-In-Law and I headed out for a quick tour of the World of Wheels show held at the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds Jan 14th that neither one of us has been to in years. As usual there were a lot of nice vehicles. From mild to wild to fast to flashy. This year included the All American Bike Show which was sponsored by Milwaukee Bike Works and Digital Big Shots. This year over 30 bikes showed up. Nice showing! After checking out all the vehicles that make up my wish I could have that one we headed for home. Hopefully I can spend a little more time next year, but that's a year away. World of Wheels pictures supplied by Colleen of Digital Bigshots

To everyone that took bikes to either The World of Wheels Show or the House of Harley Bike Show, thanks for giving thousands of people something warm weathered to look at on a Wisconsin January weekend.

What are you looking at ?

1 Samuel 16:7b

I met a man at one of our events last spring who told me that he had been feeling called to God. But he said one of the things that had been holding him back was the appearance of the people who he saw coming out of the churches. He was greatly disturbed thinking that if he surrendered to Jesus Christ he would have to cut his hair, stop wearing leather and denim, and get some of those khaki pants and button-down collar shirts. When he saw some of us Christian bikers, he realized that the only thing that really changes when you surrender to Jesus Christ is your heart and mind. 1 Samuel 16:7b says, "Man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart." God doesn't care what you look like or dress like. Society may look down on you but God does not. He wants the best for you.

God also does not hold against you how you have lived in the past or even how you are living now. Would He prefer that you change and stop self-destructive behaviors? Of course! The Bible accounts tell that most of the people Jesus associated with were people that general society rejected and organized religion looked on as being the bottom-of-the-barrel dregs of humanity. Jesus does not demand that you change your life before you surrender to Him. He asks that you believe in Him and then He will change your life.

Have you ever wondered why the Christian bikers that you see at these rallies and events are there? Ask!

Almost every Christian biker seen at an event is there foremost because they have had a life changing experience at some point in their lives.

We are directed by God's Word to love our neighbor as much as we love ourselves ... so we are there to help and serve when we are directed to or when we see a need.

We try not to be pushy, but we are there to tell anyone who is curious how Jesus Christ can change their lives as He has changed ours.
