The Iron Horse Saloon

For those of you heading out to Sturgis, I got a place you have to check out. The Ironhorse Saloon in Cobden, MN is as biker friendly as they come. A tad bit off the beaten path but well worth the trip. I had a chance to stop in last year and meet the owner Joe Stern. After bullshitting for awhile, Joe showed me his pride and joy, a Harley-Davidson golf cart. Talk about neat. After checking out the rest of the bar I decided to grab a pizza. (nothing like bar food), talk about a great pizza.

Joe is a big time rider, getting in the wind whenever possible.

But I did find out he will be at the bar during Sturgis. So if you have a couple extra hours to kill stop in. He will take care of ya. Ironhorse Saloon is just 21 miles west of New Ulm on 14 and approximately 67 miles NW of Fairmont off I-90. give him a call at 507-794-5050
