For the last 30 days I have been trying to figure out what to write about. How about starting it off with- "The weather has been good for riding", nah boring. I know- "Have you been hitting a lot of events the last month?" That's not happening. How about - "How's it going, I have been...." that's so used. What I'm getting at is that all the generic writings lately have been soooooo all the same, and I am trying to think of something that would blow the top off of a pressure cooker. So here is what I came up with? The excitement building, can you feel it? Are you ready? Nothing, nothing at all!

Your probably saying Preacher has nothing to say, what's up with that. Well let me just say I am claiming that my brain went on vacation and didn't take the rest of me. That's my story and I'm sticking to it.

Other than that let me know what's going on in your area. You don't take a minute to let me know of your event, I have no interest in helping you promote it.

With that I'm hitting the road. Bye

Meet Pup. 90,000 miles under his butt in less than 7 years. That's more than most riders now-a-days get in decades.

"Bingo's Downed Biker Fund"

If you have a Brother or Sister down and would like to get them the Free Riders Press, NO PROBLEM, be glad to do it but it does cost money. A lot of people help out by donating some coin. We here will do what we can, but with everybody giving what they can, we will make it go a long way. We all know somebody that's down, and anything would be greatly appreciated.
