Free Rider Press, December 2010 by Dave Zien

It is an honor and privilege to write articles for the Free Rider Press. Preacher and Lorie do an outstanding job in communicating the Biker Lifestyle. So, I pledge to be more productive and timely in getting them materials. When you think about it, Bikers are miraculous survivors. Surely God works in mysterious, supernatural and multi-dimensional ways. Each mile a miracle. Every moment a memory. To be addressed will be ironies and idiosyncrasies that you might want to add to and share. We all have memorable experiences to be proud of and thankful. It is difficult to share the Biker experience. By nature Bikers are fierce independents and rugged individualists. Sometimes almost selfish and self-serving. Sharing is swell!

Future Articles Include:

1. Nomination of the Accident Scene Management (ASMI) movement and Vicki SanFelipo to all major USA Motorcycle Museums and Hall of Fame. To include Road Guardian and Rescue Riders.
2. Angels in disguise or training. Some among us, others within us.
3. Milwaukee Motorcycle Music, Movie and Museums Committee (MMCMMM) successes and vision.
4. Exceptional Facts and Feats.
5. The Christian Motorcyclist Movement.
6. Soul fibers of Motorcycle organizations.
7. Personal World (God granted) long distance motorcycle records (150 plus).
8. My first college term paper, the Motorcycle Syndrome - March 1971.
9. Lonely, Wild & Free -Original poem written and taken to the Wisconsin State Forensic Tournament, Spring 1967.
10. 157 monument stones, inscriptions, flags and poles dedicated to Bikers at major Wisconsin patriotic monuments.

We just got 22 inches of snow in the recent snowstorm. Now it's going to be -15 degrees below zero tonight. This is a great time to rekindle thoughts of riding in the wind, with both arms held high. The Harley - Hallelujah
