The 16th Annual Hogs for Dogs All Harley Motorcycle Run held July 9th & 10th looked to be a good time. I was unable to attend the run but did get a chance to stop in at Twin City Harley in Blaine, MN to see all the riders off. According to Steve Cohan the events coordinator, "There were about 67 bikes on the ride and we had great weather going and coming. We raised $82,000 for the Guide Dogs of America." This in my mind is nothing to sneeze at. So next year if you are not doing anything, plan on attending the 17th Annual Hogs for Dogs run, being held July 8th and 9th. Check the website out at hogsfordogs.org for more pics of the 2005 run and hopefully I'll see you there next year.
