You know the one thing that I never seem to get enough of is the goodness of the biker community and the generosity of the brotherhood in general. From the Veteran groups donating items and cash to the veteran homes to the bikers that come out of the woodwork for kids in the form of toy runs. Fellow riders giving unselfishly to anybody they feel is worth the trip out for. Most of the bikers I know, it doesn't seem to take much to show a ton of heart towards another fellow community member

Cases in point is the Rolling Thunder story in these pages getting our veterans some of the necessities they need or the Lonely Few Toy run that has been going for years that give the kids at the St. Joseph's Hospital in Marshfield, WI a reason to smile when they receive that special toy. The Brothers & Sisters that put this ride on really care and don't want to see any child go without during the holidays. If you figure that these are only the tip of the iceberg when it comes to the positive that bikers do for others, you all rock.

I have been critical in the past of how many events there are and would like to see some of them combine for a stronger more powerful showing, but will never take away from the good they ultimately do. There is more than the outward giving that is done and it took a few folks for me to realize this.

I will be mentioning more of this in a future story, but would like to give kudos to a few people that made my life a bit more positive this past month. I had a chance to go to DC for a Rolling Thunder convention. I wanted to tell everyone that thanks to Dave Zien, Rolling thunder Chapter 4, Lucy at Kutter HD of Janesville/Monroe and my mom's helping me out, I was able to go on the week long ride and it gave me a chance to think about how to make the Free Riders Press even better for you the reader. I am blessed to be surrounded by folks like these and thank all of you that support the paper while supporting them, making for a really great positive circle for all. This is who I am, and this is what makes me shine. "Friends are everywhere but true brotherhood is precious to me."

Lastly I do want to mention a book I am reading that is also advertising in the FRP. It's called "Motorcycling Across Wisconsin" by William Murphy. I don't want to do a review of the book here, but I will say that from what I have read already it may be a great Christmas present for the biker, riding couple or group that likes to hit the road and find new places to see. Check out www.murchadapublishing.com for more books by the author.

Well till next time have a great Thanksgiving.

Mission Statement:

This paper was started out of the love and respect for being in the wind, and the brothers and sisters that are in the wind also. I have been riding all my life and have learned what brotherhood means. The Free Riders Press is a paper dedicated to the biker who knows this respect. Not barring any rider for what he wears or rides. We try to cover stories that make the public sit back and have a positive outlook on bikers. We will try to cover events that are for the biker and put on by the biker. This paper will be used to better the riding community through education, updates and personal views that are of positive thinking for the riding community in general. We will try to fight the ongoing discrimination that seems to be thrown onto us without our view being told. Free Riders Press is for all to enjoy, so by working together someday we can be free in the wind, without the worry of any of the aforementioned items.

" Bingo's Downed Biker Fund"

If you have a Brother or Sister down and would like to get them the Free Riders Press, NO PROBLEM, be glad to do it but it does cost money. A lot of people help out by donating some coin. We here will do what we can, but with everybody giving what they can, we will make it go a long way. We all know somebody that's down, and anything would be greatly appreciated.
