

Next month will be the last month of the 32nd brigade photos. Sometime next month we will be welcoming our brave men and women back to Wisconsin. Be sure to submit any pictures you would like to see printed as soon as possible so we don't miss anyone. TO ALL THE SOLDIERS OF THE 32ND BRIGADE: Since this will be the last issue that you see before you get back to the states, the Free Riders Press would like to thank you for your service and sacrifice. You have all put your lives on hold, and on the line, so that we can continue to live in a free and democratic country. There is no way to put into words how grateful and appreciative we are.

Please send us your pics of your welcome home's, we would love to see and print those. Have a blast when you get home, you deserve it! Send pictures to lorie@freeriderspress.us or 4500 State Hwy 66, Stevens Point, WI 54482

6th Annual cast ride

Sept 12, 2009

The 6th Annual cast ride was just an absolutely well organized AWESOME time. Twenty-two scoots, all over 30 years old and very well taken care of, left Savanna, IL on a 172 mile ride thru eastern Iowa, southern Wisconsin, and ending back in Savanna for one hell of a steak dinner done by Fat Jack.

After leavin' Savanna, we went across the Mississippi on the steel bridge from hell to the first stop, James Long Motorcycles in the town of Bellevue, Iowa. James Long's shop was past bein' knowledgeable it's a workin' museum. We left Bellevue and went thru Dubuque, Iowa to the town of Balltown, and ate at Iowa's oldest tavern & restaurant, the Breitbach's. After a full belly we were again on our way to the Cassville Wisconsin Ferry that we boarded in Iowa to cross the Mississippi into Wisconsin and headin' southeast to Potosi, WI for gas and ass rest. We then headed for New Diggings, WI General Store & Inn Tavern for a beverage break and a look around. Back on the road CR. O super scenic crossin' into Illinois at Charles Mound, the highest point in Illinois. Headin' south to Savanna for the Steak dinner.

The ride had no break downs, just a wore or two comin' off the key switch. Just a slap awesome ride. I would like ya'll to know everybody with a scoot 30 years or older is welcome to the 7th annual in 2010.

D.J "Dog's" world famous leg makes a great tip cup.
