My brain is flippin' fried. I can't think for sheeat. But It's my duty to write down something here. Keeping the thoughts motorcycle oriented is really hard at this point of the year. As I sit and watch snow fall, the slippery roads and the frigid temperatures, the ambition level is spikin' at about a negative 5. But the only thing that keeps me thinking positive is that for every day that rolls by, is one day closer to the warmth of the ride in spring. I can feel it now, the back roads all salt and sand free. The destination of the ride for a cool beverage and a bite to eat. Oh ya, can you feel it?

I do need to let you all know again that I am in the winter print schedule and yes the Free Riders Press is still in business. I have had a bunch of people call asking that particular question. So yes you should All start seeing them on the shelves today when I start delivering. So this is the December 2014/January 2015 issue, then the next will be Feb/March 2015 that will be out around this time in February. We will be back on monthly starting April issue. So take note and enjoy.

Another thought I wanted to mention is that for those of you that are still looking for a Christmas gift for the biker in your life, we can start them anytime for you. For only $20 you can have the Free Riders Press delivered to your door. The longest running biker magazine in Wisconsin and surrounding borders will give you at least a few hours of relaxing read. The paper is over 12 years old now and still family oriented. Want to see the T&A, check out the $5 a copy national magazines. Any questions feel free to give a shout out to me. The numbers on page 3. Also, if you are planning a vacation or have taken one last year that you would like to share with the rest of the FRP family, send a short write up and a picture or two and I will run it for you. That goes for fiction, poems, thought, technical advice and so forth. It your paper, I'm just the glorified janitor for heaven sakes. This is a reader contributed magazine and that is the way we keep her rollin'.

Talk about a up and down last couple months. I finally got Free Rider Xpress LLC hauling business all set up and have been keeping fairly busy with that. For now I am just hauling spray booms, but am looking to haul some bikes to different destinations down south during the winter. So if you have a group that would like to escape the chill and ride the rays of sun I may be able to help you. Give me a shout with any thoughts. (715) 572-6573 I also have a funny thought for you on the name. I was trying to come up with a good name that people would remember and I finally settled on Free Rider Xpress, considering everyone remembers and calls the paper that name instead of it's real name of Free Riders Press. Just an FYI I chuckle about.

I do need to apologize for the lateness of this issue. I was trying to get it out last week, but had a myriad of things come up that caused me to not be able to concentrate. First was the passing of a friend's 4 year old that had cancer. His name was Christopher and he was a great kid. Always remember to keep the good memories ahead of the bad. As they said at the funeral, kids hold your parents close, parents hold your kids tight and keep good thoughts going with those you love, because you never know when something may happen. Then 2 days later after Christopher's passing, my 2nd grandson Johnny Lee was born to DJ and his girl Kelsey. We got to see him Friday and what a joy those little tikes have on us old farts, huh?

Remember also Swap meet season is fast approaching, so keep an eye on the calendar of events for those that I know of.

Other than that I am going to end with a big COME ON SPRING and I will see you at the shows.

Letter to Editor - Free Rider Press

December 2, 2014

"Way to go, Preacher! Tell it like it is. You say a lot of what we feel, but we just don't have the guts or newspaper skill to say it.

Keep laying it on the line. The Free Rider Press is about as good as it gets in reflecting the many aspects of the Biker World".

It's too bad more people don't get your paper.

It's very educational to read the Free Rider Press from front to back. This would help a lot of people be so much happier!

Merry Christmas to you all.
