The particular Club that was targeted in the video raises money every year for x-mas time , to help out a needy family. They also have a run to raise money 'for the memory of a young girl, Cora Jones' to donate 2 scholarship's so a couple of kids can get a jump start on further educations. How do I know, I'm proud as hell to have been a club member and call these guys my brothers. I can tell you that I would trust my 12 year old daughter to be out of harms way with any of these color wearing people versus being on my cities street alone at 7pm by herself. They take more pride in their families and jobs than most of the people like "Mr. Know it all video producer" than any other group of people I know. We are all human, but noone should put down another because of who he/she is, because they're not like themselves. One last thing, for the last couple of years there has been a new political party started by bikers with the intention of backing political candidates that see things the way we do. Be it Veteran Affairs, Insurance, our civil rights and liberties along with motorcycle issues/laws and more. Notice the categories mentioned? Notice anything strange about them? Veterans Affairs, health insurance, our rights as Americans. These are all issues that pertain to everyone of us, wether you ride a bike, go play bingo or shuffle kids to after school sports, our government is way to embedded in our lives and it's time to make some serious changes. Check out www.americanbikerparty.com for more on it. Which gets me to my original point here of working together. Everybody has differences but yet the people with differences usually have things of similarity to go along with it. A couple of thoughts for you."We have been watching our Rights and Freedoms go down the toilet so fast, What's it going to be like for our grandchildren?" Winston Churchill said "Never give in... never, never, never, never, in nothing great or small, large or petty, never give in except to convictions of honour and good sense. Never yield to force... never yield to the apparently overwhelming might of the enemy." To me personally that says a lot.

Till Next Month, Preacher

LAURA THE POTTER

Hello! Maybe I am familiar to you from Full Throttle, Quick Throttle, and Spoke N Road Magazines...I worked for over 2 years as a sales person and writing my column...and when Spoke N Road closed...I still wanted to be part of a local riding publication...so here I am! Preacher came to my studio and we had a little pow wow, and I like him! He's very down to earth. Free Riders Press has been around for 4 years, and is very stable, and right now – that is what appeals to me the most! I am a full time Potter and Instructor. I have been doing this for over 14 years. I run my business and live in what used to be the old general store in Silver Creek, MN. Located in central MN, 12 miles west of Monticello. It's kind of like a little ghost town. A few vacant buildings, Smokin' Joes Roadhouse, and 87 steps away is me – The Potters Place. Awesome riding roads around here – and during riding season bikes are constantly coming and going. Anyway...I'm sad Spoke N Road is gone, shit happens, but I'm excited about my new venture with Free Riders Press, and look forward to the new people I will meet as a result of working with Preacher! See you at Donnie Smith! Take Care, Laura the Potter
