Ralph Covert, formerly of the Bad Examples, does his thing. Queen of House music, Screamin' Rachel makes it real. Did you know Chicago House Music circa 1985 had an unprecedented resurgence in Amsterdam last year among its young DJs? Rockers Mike Tafoya, Chip Z'Nuff and Greg Potter electrify the air. Funkadelic George Clinton creates his patented P-Funk Nation & threatens to raise the roof. Just because it's colder than a witch's zit is no reason for a biker not to party. This joint rocks until 4am.

Another week & behold! It's 2008; don't be late. It's Sunday. It's 55 degrees Fahrenheit. Sorry baby, I gots to go delivah the Jana-wary FRP. A profoundly Evel tribute adorns the cover in glorious star-spangled Technicolor by Leroy. Well, I'm gone like Magellan round the Horn, a turkey through corn, an old geezer in porn, a tire that's worn.
