

Classic Cycle, located at 1555 S Commercial St., Neenah, WI is dedicated to the maintenance, service, and repair of Harley's and even Buell motorcycles, both old and new, including performance work. Huntz Schad, owner, is one of those increasingly hard to find old motorcycle mechanics that's been there, done that forever. After 30+ years of wrenching on bikes, including 17 of those years in a HD dealership, Huntz Schad is a factory trained mechanic that seriously knows his stuff. His own personal bikes have earned him respect and recognition at bike shows, been featured in various magazines throughout the years, and he's even done performance work on race bikes through his own past lengthy involvement with racing.

The shop itself focuses on what Huntz does best, service motorcycles, from old pan heads to most of the newer twin cams, whether it's routine maintenance, repair service, performance upgrades or complete engine rebuilds. Classic Cycle is also an authorized dealer for most major motorcycle parts and accessories suppliers.

BIKER TIPS from the desk of Attorney Joe Weigel:

I hope to get to Daytona, Florida bike week this year. You may find it cheaper to rent a bike in Florida rather than haul your bike down (depending on gas prices). I often rent in Orlando. Daytona is different from Sturgis and other bike rallies. Heavier percentage of sport bikes; heavier percentage of daredevil riders.
