

Donnie Smith Show

Last years show brought in 1000's of people for the Donnie Smith Bike Show & Parts Extravaganza at River Centre in St. Paul, MN. Now I realize that all the hype of custom bikes has all but disappeared from the Discovery Channel except for reruns, and it seems like the custom market has all but vanished, but I can say for certain one fact about this show, It Rocks with old, new and custom bikes.

The shows promoter Neil Ryan of American Thunder in Savage, MN does a fabulous job finding some far out entries for spectators to check out. But we don't want to forget about the average Joe that is so proud of his ride (no matter how stock it is) and he feels good enough about that pride to enter into one of the many categories. This show after all is a long running event (25th year) that has broad appeal to everyone that likes to ride.

Many motorcycle related vendors are there including yours truly (ME), doing their thing and showing folks what they are missing without their products. Everything from Leather to painters/pin strippers to new/used parts and everything in between fill out the 140000 square foot floor space all for your enjoyment. If you are looking for something to do the weekend of March 24-25th, make some plans now for a get away, I guarantee you won't be disappointed.
