

Antique Bike Show and Knucklehead Reunion

If you want to see motorcycles just look up and down the street. This year has been fantastic for riding, and the scoots have been out in force. But if you want to see old motorcycles I would suggest heading down to the Harley Museum in Milwaukee July 10th 2010 to see the biggest gathering of Knuckleheads around. There are well over 100 pre - 1969 Harley-Davidson Big Twin bikes on display for the crowd to checkout and vote on.

The Antique Bike Show and Knucklehead Reunion, organized by the Knucklehead Company, Ltd. Did a great job along with the Badger Heritage Chapter of the AMCA organized one great day. This year there will be Field Games with all makes and models of pre-1969 bikes being welcome to participate. To cap it off awards will be given out and Tuck Pence will perform.

I had a great time last year and hope you will have the same feeling after attending this event this year.
