

The Horse Rally in Sabula, IA

I have been working with the Iron Horse Rally Bike & Music Festival www.thehorserrally.com since the start. I have been there every year since it opened and I don't plan on stopping any time soon. This event just keeps growing in size. Not giant leaps but as people realize this gem of a venue is around, they are showing up.

This year during Memorial Day weekend I shot down and ended up getting there about 8:30pm. After a great day of riding, I started to set up camp, (amazing how a broken tent can ruin a great day in a hurry) but after a while I ended up in FRP advertiser and all around good folks Jackie & Mark from Black & Chrome van for the night.

The next day I scooted into town and checked out the ever changing Hog Dogs for some people watching and a quick tour of the remodeling being done. If you haven't been there in a while, you may want to go back soon because after a while you may not recognize the building inside.

I headed out before I could see Jimmy Van Zant Saturday night, but hopefully I will catch them down the road. It was nice to chat with Wolfe from the band though. Take it easy bro and to the rest of the riding community, ride safe.
