

Gold Wing Show

For over five years now the Free Riders Press has been trying to reach out to ALL motorcyclists in the region. After a while you get to thinking that a certain aspect of the riding community is happy in their own little world. Well I finally headed off to a non Harley event in my own area, where I saw the event listed in my local paper and went to check it out.

Chapter K of the Gold Wing Road Riders Association held their Annual fund-raiser at the CenterPoint Mall in Stevens Point on April 29th. To my surprise there was quite the turnout of Gold Wings in the parking lot and a lot of riders in the mall. According to Sue Savage, who is the Member Enhancement/Public Relations for Chapter K of the Gold Wing Road Riders Association, "We had 140 people who registered, but I know there were lots of people who didn't register as well. There were 24 bikes/trikes on display in our show including two Harley's as well as a Suzuki. Yup - we don't mind including the "other" guys. We are a group who likes to ride and likes to have fun, and there are many great benefits to membership. GWRRA members came from all over the state of Wisconsin - many rode their Wings to the show and were parked outside."

I can honestly say that there were easily 40 plus Wings in the parking lot. Think about it, this show was bigger than most of the events I attend. I was pleased to see that there were many kids like Nate, Keegan and Kiana enjoying themselves. Like I always say, "Who's going to take over if the Next Generation isn't involved in today's riding community."

So this is a great time to have ALL groups whether it be clubs, riding groups or motorcycle events to put the Free Riders Press on your mailing list, so we can all enjoy a little diversity.

Just how do you get a flower home on a bike? I have always pondered that question.
