

Bike nights:

Officially summer doesn't start till the bike nights kick off. This year I caught the season opener bike night at the Edge O' Dells TNT -"Thursday Night Thunder". Now in conjunction with RPM night, the Edge is the place to be.

The cool thing about this bike night is that each week has a different sponsor bar. Each week a different sponsor that is on the weekly poker run gets to promote themselves at the Edge and hold their own entertainment such as pudding wrestling, oil wrestling etc, making each week unique. The weekly entertainment (DJ) and car/bike show gives families a chance to see some unique vehicles while getting some great food, drink and raffles. Between 7-10 it's family time, but when the sun goes down, as they say, "Let the games begin." I was not able to stay till then but I hear it's a wild time.

I've mentioned the Edge many times in the past. Not just because they are a hardcore Free Riders Press supporter, but they are a 7 day a week place to be. Check them out on the web at www.edgeodells.com There will be a final party at the Edge at the end of Aug. Keep an eye here for the date.

In short it's nice to see establishments working together instead of fighting each other for a good turnout.

NO WEAPONS ALLOWED =  =

I have noticed your "Gun Free Zone" sign and I am going to respect your wishes by not spending my money at your business.

You have lost my business today and in the future!

Your business would be safer with law-abiding citizens carrying concealed handguns, but you chose to make it safer for criminals.

You have chosen to ban firearms in your store. As such, I have chosen to take my gun, and my money, to your competitors until such time as you choose to allow law-abiding armed citizens in your establishment.
