From the Editor:

What's going on, anything good? Yes mother nature turned us into an icehouse this past month, so I'm thinking your all taking advantage of the swap meets that are going on. I am hearing from the promoters that they are getting good attendance, so let them all know you had a good time so we can continue to have a wide variety of swaps to choose from.

I have a lot of things to say so I will get to it. We would like to welcome a bunch of new business's to the Free Riders Press family as well as those that are back from previous years. Let's remember these places when we are setting up poker runs and rides, because when you think about it without them I wouldn't be putting out this rag. So support them highly, they appreciate it.

If you hadn't noticed I am still playing catch up from last years events I attended. One last month and we should be on track again. If you haven't seen your event (that I attended) in the FRP let me know, heck I'm not perfect. On the same note send in them events that I didn't go to including pictures, a little about the event and this years dates and we'll see about getting it in for you.

Next item of business is aimed at the Downed Brothers and Sisters. PLEASE SEND Bingo a letter and introduce yourself otherwise you may be taken off the list to receive the paper. He is the main man when it comes to all of you. Some inmates have gotten subscriptions and are covered, but many simply wrote ME (Preacher) a letter and have never written BINGO himself. His address is at the bottom of this page. I would really appreciate it.

On a side note, there is a rumor floating around that Free Riders Press bought Spoke-N-Rode magazine. False, I am simply trying to help out the advertisers keep their business name in the minds of the riding community, and the people that wrote for Spoke-N-Rode an outlet to get their ideas out and cover events in Minnesota. With everybody's input we can put out an informative, fun and exciting rag for the upper Midwest.

Lastly, a few personal things from Lorie and I and the rest of the Free Riders Staff. Congratulations to Laura the Potter on the birth of her grandson Ashton Jordon born Feb. 2nd (Ground Hogs Day). A get well soon to our very own Pastor Sam, who is healing from a surgery.(Remember, that scoots waiting for you in the garage) And lastly, the early pass ing of David Ellis-Miller from Fury Motorcycle. (More on David in next month's Brothers lost)

So, all in all riding season is just around the corner, get them rides put back together and we'll see you at the next Swap Meet or Bike Show in a city/ town near you.

Till Next Time, Preacher
