

Open Road H-D

Feb.16th&17th 2007 was the Grand Opening of, OPEN ROAD-HARLEY DAVIDSON, formerly Bob's Harley Davidson, located at 24 So. Rolling Meadows Drive in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. A host of activities were to be had both Friday and Saturday with food, refreshments, and music provided by Uncle Whiskey Breath Band, and a live remote provided by Sunny 97.7 radio on Friday. Saturday coffee, donuts, food refreshments, a book signing (Growing Up Harley Davidson) by Jean Davidson, and Miss Wisconsin was there. Also a contest and merchandise give-a-ways. A good turn out both days, and a good time was had by all that attended. The new owners, Pete Johnson and Lori Thiel are both very personable people and aim to please their customers. Their motto being "YOUR EXPERIENCE IS OUR PASSION". It's all about customer relationships, said Pete. They will be sponsoring previous events and adding many new ones, such as Garage Parties for the Ladies and Demo Rides. If you are in the area, drop in and check out the facility. They have a lot to offer! By the way Lori's daughter came up with "THE OPEN ROAD" name. Very cool!

Thanks to Al and Kathi of By the Grace of God (www.ridefreeforever.org) for covering this event for me. Great job!
