Well another issue down and I think it's a pretty good one if I may say so myself. Why do I say that? Because I have my regular writers back again, some new ones wanting to help out with a whole lot of good vibes being thrown around. I have run into some very good members of the riding community that have either been or are doing great things for the biker image.

Some of these people are helping others unselfishly without wanting anything in return. A few of these people are part of one of the stories in this issue. Tommy, Diesel from the Disturbed MC Nomads, along with the members of Ultimate Sacrifice are two groups that are making a difference. But the really neat thing was when I went to a friend's shop and was telling them about the good these two groups are doing, they said we're in. Sheryl and Rick from Heckey Computers are really into helping others as well. Before I knew it we were discussing things we could do to take it further. Needless to say I have come to the conclusion that there are a ton of Brothers & Sisters out there that would help if they could, but are so confused about who to support. You hear stories about this charity scammed x amount of cash or this front person is getting paid millions to be a spokesman for that certain charity. Here is what I propose! I have always had an idea of getting a 501 going that helped people out that really need it. In short, keep it local, simple and honesty based. This is something like I said earlier that has been in the back of the brain stem for years. Maybe sometime soon we will be able to keep the charitable giving up while keeping each other from stepping on each other's toes. But that is a whole other editorial. Oh ya, I have written about that before, and yes it's amazing how many people agreed with me.

We have a lot of cool events shaping up for the season. Many are in the 2 and 3 decades of running. Congratulations to them! It's amazing to me that anything can run for so long, but then again I said that about the Free Riders Press almost 11 years ago. Yep, next issue (May) will be 11 years and going strong. Well I did have a couple breaks in there, but it is amazing the support I have received since being back in January. I want to give a special thanks to all those riders that I now consider friends of FRP.

I did want to mention one other thing. This is mainly aimed at business', but anyone can use the information. In the past I have explained the different magazines and papers that were out there. Well it seems some have been, well for a better use of terms been (pushing the truth to potential advertisers) about who they are, what they can do for the customer. If you have someone approach you and want some of your hard earned cash in exchange for setting the world on fire and leading them to your door, beware. Don't hesitate to ask a few questions like, How long you been in business? Where are you distributed near me? How many of the particular items they're selling are seen by John Q. Public? Etc. I am asked all the time and will always be upfront with my answers because to me a few extra bucks aren't worth lying for. Enough said there.

Lastly I am working with the MDA Wausau fire fighters ride and am having a fun run on Saturday after the luncheon at Nokomis Park. I will have more details in the next issue about this item. Till next time

Next Generation Humor

**A grandfather was delivering his grandchildren to their home one day when a fire truck zoomed past. Sitting in the front seat of the fire truck was a Dalmatian dog. The children started discussing the dog's duties.

"They use him to keep crowds back," said one child. "No," said another. "He's just for good luck." A third child brought the argument to a close. "They use the dogs," she said firmly, "to find the fire hydrants."

**My young grandson called the other day to wish me Happy Birthday. He asked me how old I was, and I told him, 62. My grandson was quiet for a moment, and then he asked, "Did you start at 1?"

Mission Statement:

This paper was started out of the love and respect for being in the wind, and the brothers and sisters that are in the wind also. I have been riding all my life and have learned what brotherhood means. The Free Riders Press is a paper dedicated to the biker who knows this respect. Not barring any rider for what he wears or rides. We try to cover stories that make the public sit back and have a positive outlook on bikers. We will try to cover events that are for the biker and put on by the biker. This paper will be used to better the riding community through education, updates and personal views that are of positive thinking for the riding community in general. We will try to fight the ongoing discrimination that seems to be thrown onto us without our view being told. Free Riders Press is for all to enjoy, so by working together someday we can be free in the wind, without the worry of any of the aforementioned items.

"Bingo's Downed Biker Fund"

If you have a Brother or Sister down and would like to get them the Free Riders Press, NO PROBLEM, be glad to do it but it does cost money. A lot of people help out by donating some coin. We here will do what we can, but with everybody giving what they can, we will make it go a long way. We all know somebody that's down, and anything would be greatly appreciated.
