Free Riders Press readers. I sure hope ya'lls ridin' has been full of super bike events to go enjoy. "Bone-Leg-Dog" got to go on the back of "Big Tim's" dresser to take photos of the Iron Skulls M/A poker run/Breastfest Biker Bash. Ticket sales and party which started and ended at the 2 Wheel Inn with food, a dunk tank, pole dancin' all to raise money to fight breast cancer. Two kick-ass bands outside and inside rocked the day and night.

The poker run went to Legends Bar in Lena, IL, Jeff's Refs in Polo, IL and the Real McCoys Bar in Davis, IL makin' it about 125 miles round trip. The bars the Iron Skulls M/A picked for their run were just outstandin' with good-n-plenty of help with absolutely awesome attitudes and smiles. The Northeast IL. Chapter of the Invaders M/C made the poker run showin' their support for Iron Skull's fightin' breast cancer.

I did see some Wisconsin tags and would like to see and meet more Wisc. folk havin' a great time at the 2-Wheel Inn. Check out 2 Wheel Inn facebook. Ride fast but safe ya'll. "Bone-Leg-Dog"
