Share the Road-Oct 9, 2006

I would like to thank Tom Barten from ABATE of Wisconsin for dragging me out at 6:30 AM to go on a chilly 60 plus mile ride to Monticello H.S. for a 1st hour class. He was talking to 27 Drivers Ed students about what they can expect when they start driving. He stressed the fact's that motorcycles are plentiful on the road, but not always as visible as other vehicles. These future drivers seemed to be very interested in hearing another viewpoint, not just the same teachers rambling. Now with the new roadway users act in effect, if you get a chance to go with someone for a share the road class, go. I was sure glad I did. Maybe next time it will be for an afternoon class though.

Thanks to Mr. Weatherwax for having us. For more info on Share the Road see www.abatewis.org
