From the Editor:

Howdy, I hope your all doing well while getting some cool weather riding in. I seem to get more riding in when it gets cooler out, versus the ninety degree days. Sounds weird huh, but that's the way I like it.

I am noticing that the toy runs and charity events are starting to come out of the wood-work due to the holidays. (And some people think it slows down in the bikers' world when the leaves drop, NOT) An if possible try to get out to some of them. I know I feel really good knowing I helped out a down on its luck family, food pantry or a kid that could go with nothing if no one steps in. And the best part about the small event versus the big charity events is that you know the donations get to where they are supposed to, not in the pocket of a big nonprofit or caught up in the so-called red tape. The Brothers and Sisters in the wind are, from my point of view some of the most honest and generous people on the planet. For that I salute you. Keep up the good work.

Talking about saluting! Remember Veterans Day November 11. This is as far as I am concerned one of the most important days of the year. Without our beloved vets this country would be a whole lot more messed up than it is now, guaranteed! If you ever took the time to just sit quietly on a summer night and listen to the children playing kick the can, see a family taking the dog for a walk, or go to a Sunday service and see all the people sitting contently listening to the Preacher give his sermon. I call that FREEDOM baby! And without the strong convictions of the people in this countries history, including the men and women that served we would be a really fcked up nation. For that I salute all Vets! Take the time to say thanks. They deserve it.

Now on to the election. Making this short and to the point, if you don't get off your ass November 2 and vote, keep your viewpoint to your self, I don't want to hear it. There is no excuse not to vote with all the ads on tv, radio and in print. I don't care who or what you vote for, it's the vote that is cast that counts. I really do look forward to the day after the elections, because I know I did my part. Whoever gets into office don't matter at that point, I can move on with my life, nothing can change history.

And finally! As some of you know, I have been splitting my time between the paper and helping to promote an entertainer/friend out of Florida. Most people that know me know that when I find something I believe in, I jump in with both feet. Half ass don't cut it with me while doing anything. (Drives the wife crazy, he he) It's strange that when something comes along that you enjoy doing, how relaxing it can be to the soul. So if your looking for some great entertainment give me a call. I guarantee you'll enjoy "The Captain Ron Show" at your next event.

Hope to see you on the 2-wheeled trail soon,
Preacher

Here is a letter that was sent to his dad, I thought it well said.

Hey Everyone:

How's it going, I hope it is going a lot better then here. They took 4 more of my brothers and close friends. That is 7 in less than a week. I have learned one thing here, and the only way to describe it is to call it hate. I hate these people, I hate everything they stand for. We come here to help and they pull this coward shit. They will pay I promise that. Many of you might not agree with my views, but this is my update and I am telling you how I feel. When we go into the city we used to give candy, I'd rather put a muzzle in a guys face and let him know in a matter of seconds I could take his life away, just like how his buddy down the street took my friends life. I wish death upon everyone in this city. I cant wait for them to give us the ok to sweep through the city. Boy are they going to pay, pay with their lives. I have learned one thing here, kill the weak and feed the hungry. I have seen people cry, people die, all because of some idiot that believes he will go to heaven.. Haha, I will make sure he goes somewhere, and it won't be heaven. I have changed, I am not here to protect the people, we have all learned that we are here to survive, and the only way to do that is to be the hunter not the hunted. When I saw my 4 friends get pulled out of the hum-vee they were lifeless, it's weird. I was sad but I boil inside to kill these people for what they took from us. Good bless their soles, and bring the fire of hell about these cowards.

Patrick

Mission Statement:

This paper was started out of the love and respect for being in the wind, and the brothers and sisters that are in the wind also. I have been riding all my life and have learned what brotherhood means. The Free Riders Press is a paper dedicated to the biker who knows this respect. Not barring any rider for what he wears or rides. We try to cover stories that make the public sit back and have a positive outlook on bikers. We will try to cover events that are for the biker and put on by the biker. This paper will be used to better the riding community through education, updates and personal views that are of positive thinking for the riding community in general. We will try to fight the ongoing discrimination that seems to be thrown onto us without our view being told. Free Riders Press is for all to enjoy, so by working together someday we can be free in the wind, without the worry of any of the aforementioned items.

"Bingo's Downed Biker Fund"

If you have a Brother or Sister down and would like to get them the Free Riders Press, NO PROBLEM, be glad to do it but it does cost money. A lot of people help out by donating some coin. We here will do what we can, but with everybody giving what they can, we will make it go a long way. We all know somebody that's down, and anything would be greatly appreciated.
