

Bobby LeMarche is Escorted Home

A returning home soldier, Bobby LaMarche, from Escanaba was escorted home by "Patriot Guard Riders". A Patriot Guard Rider is anyone who wants to show their sincere support for our soldiers, their families and their communities, and to shield them from protestors. Bobby started his journey home by land from Chicago, IL. The first leg of Patriot Guard Riders were from Chicago and another group of Patriot Guard Riders met him along the way and continued on to Green Bay. The Green Bay Patriot Riders led Bobby, his parents and grandparents to Vandervest Harley-Davidson in Peshtigo where Patriot Guard Riders from his home town, Escanaba, were waiting to lead him home. Vandervest Harley-Davidson had a huge crowd on hand for an Open House Party. The crowd, along with the Marinette National Guard and the Escanaba Patriot Guard Riders filled the parking lot for Bobby's return.

Bobby was injured during gunfire in Iraq three months ago. He is currently paralyzed. There was a benefit in Escanaba on Oct. 6th for him.

Rod Malfroid, Wild Fire HOG Director, sold 50/50 tickets throughout the day and presented Bobby with the earnings. Vandervests also presented Bobby with a gift package.
