

Pit Stop:

You know when you go out to the garage and pack up the bags for where ever you plan on going? Some mount up and have a place they're headed, and others jump on and just go. Well I know one thing, either way there is a place that would accommodate both destinations. Hardtails Saloon in Hortonville, WI seems to be the place most people in the Fox Valley end up.

Jodi, the owner of Hardtails Saloon and hubby Mark are to say the least, great people with a different view on life. Don't get me wrong, but if you ever stop in, ask about the pig and duck story, or ask Jodi about the gazing ball story. Their "Hell bound party bus" can be seen at any major bike event. Just pick a subject and Mark will have a story about it.

On any given night you will see numerous bikes parked out front, with the riders inside enjoying the company of the likes of bartender Michelle (who is a whole different story) ha ha. No, seriously the people are friendly as hell.

If your lucky, they may have a band with the likes of Tuck Pence, Michael Murphy. They have parties every year like the Waterproofing Party, and the Annual Ray's/Hardtails Party which is always a great time. Keep an eye out for them.

The decor at Hardtails is totally biker friendly including diamond plate bar and party deck out back. Located in the heart of Hortonville, you will be glad you stopped. Guaranteed!!
