

TOP DOG Day!

The First Annual Bikers and Barkers Poker Run was held on August 11th, as Benefit for Oshkosh Area Humane Society.

Janet Braun, a Humane Society volunteer, organized the days' poker run in collaboration with Sharon Wagner, Volunteer Coordinator.

"Words can't express our appreciation for the impressive number of registrations and turnout of support. A Great BIG Thank You, to Lynn & Jim DeValk, proprietors of Thunder Valley Cycles. Many more thanks to the bars and volunteers on the Run, and the overwhelming generosity by local businesses."

*First Prize Raffle Winner of Mini Chopper: Mark Koenig, Brownsville, WI.

*Winning Poker Hand: John & Cindy, with a Full House.

Proceeds go to Oshkosh Area Humane Society, housed in a 2.5 year old remodeled facility, which formerly served as a medical surgical clinic. The former waiting area has been converted into gallery, where prospective adopters are allowed to commingle with prospective adoptees.

There are over 30 canine kennels, split between the front and back of the this unique facility.

If interested in adopting a pet (or surrendering one) please call 902-424-2128 or visit website, oahs.org.
