She slapped her hand over her mouth.

Diving on top of Apostle, Squinch snarled. "Who'd you call a pussy?"

He slammed his fist ferociously into the Apostle's jaw. The sickening crack of bone or teeth made Ellen nauseous. Apostle grabbed Squinch's throat. Squinch struggled to pry his hands away, but Apostle, his face red from the strain, held on. He tried to roll Squinch to the ground. A knee to his groin had Apostle reeling and he let go. Squinch got up on his knees, coughing and gagging.

Again they attacked like wild dogs. The sound of fists striking bone and blood spurting from torn skin, paralyzed Ellen. She looked around, trying to figure out how she could get out of there when she saw Squinch reach toward his back pocket and retrieve a long shiny knife.

She shot up and ran toward the tents. Ellen didn't know what propelled her adrenaline, fear, panic? She had to find Mason and fast.

Let Sally know your thoughts on the story.
