

What's Going To Happen To America?

By Skypilot

Well the primary's are coming upon us fast and I have never been one to talk about politics but this year I have to speak out. Below you will see the facts for your self.

John Mc Cain has had 26 years in the congress alone and 22 years in the military which part of those was a POW after him and his fighter jet were shoot down.

Where on the other hand Barrack Obama only has 143 days in congress and has never stood up for this country and served a single day in the Military. As far as his congressional experience, it would be like putting a kindergarten teacher into a college teaching position.

I'm not a racist be any means but what is going to happen to the lower class people, with all the get backs Obama has been talking about, is he just going to cut their governmental assistance all together.

I've heard from several disabled vets that have waited in line after one of his speech's, and when ask "what are your plans for the disabled vets, because I've been this why since Vietnam and your going to have three times as many coming home from this war" and Obama just turned around and walked away.

Well it is up to the American public to decide, myself I'd rather have the man with experience. Well until next month take care and god be with you.

Let's remember our Troops, our POW~MIA and their families. "Keep on Triken" .

EARNING A DESK

Back in September of 2005, on the first day of school, Martha Cothren, a social studies school teacher at Robinson High School in Little Rock, did something not to be forgotten.

On the first day of school, with the permission of the school superintendent, the principal and the building supervisor, she removed all of the desks out of her classroom. When the first period kids entered the room they discovered that there were no desks. Looking around, confused, they asked, 'Ms. Cothren, where're our desks?'

She replied, 'You can't have a desk until you tell me what you have done to earn the right to sit at a desk.' They thought, 'Well , maybe it's our grades.' & nbsp;'No,' she said. 'Maybe it's our behavior.' She told them, 'No, it's not even your behavior.'

And so, they came and went, the first period, second period, third period, still no desks in the classroom.

By early afternoon television news crews had started gathering in Ms. Cothren's classroom to report about this crazy teacher who had taken all the desks out of her room.

The final period of the day came and as the puzzled students found seats on the floor of the deskless classroom, Martha Cothren said, 'Throughout the day no one has been able to tell me just what he/she has done to earn the right to sit at the desks that are ordinarily found in this classroom. Now I am going to tell you.'

At this point, Martha Cothren went over to the door of her classroom and opened it. Twenty-seven (27) U.S. Veterans, all in uniforms, walked into that classroom, each one carrying a school desk. The Vets began placing the school desks in rows, and then they would walk over and stand alongside the wall. By the time the last Soldier had set the final desk in place those kids started to understand, perhaps for the first time in their lives, just how the right to sit at those desks had been earned.

Martha said, 'You didn't earn the right to sit at these desks. These heroes did it for you. They placed the desks here for you. Now, it's up to you to sit in them. It is your responsibility to learn, to be good students, to be good citizens. They paid the price so that you could have the freedom to get an education. Don't ever for get it.'

This is a true story.... If you can read this - thank a teacher! If you can read it in English - thank a soldier! If you can understand the message - Thank God!

A veteran - whether active duty, retired, national guard or reserve - is someone who, at one point in their life, signed a blank check made payable to 'The United States of America', for an amount of 'up to and including my life.'

That is Honor, and there are way too many people in this country who no longer understand it.

The Sturgis Rally just keeps getting better. Everyone there is a potential friend, sharing our same passions.

Major inroads are being made to make the North American Freedom Warrior Monument (NAFWM) a reality. Expect the nearby 6 year incorporated entity, to report on the Sturgis and Madison locations soon.

Angels in Training are helping the NAFWM happen. Mike and Dizzy Kruger, Phil & Nollene (Northwest Territory-Canada), Ron & Frenchy Johnson and Steve Anderson were our Black Hills buddies who helped the vision. Awesome, indeed! Our privilege indeed to be a part of Rolling Thunders Tribute to Veterans and Military. Several of us participated in the Sturgis Auction.

In fact, Steve/Wissota Customs Interiors is the first to contribute to the Million-Mile Motorcycle. Comes Adventure! Pull-up that web site which was just opened (MillionMileMotorcycle.com) which was just opened. It'll be updated and added to weekly.

For the record, my 970,910-mile Harley is at Sioux Falls, S.D. due to extreme metal fatigue. Hopefully Slow and easy physical therapy for a few weeks, she'll be out by early September.

There's gotta' be some sort of spiritual transcendence here. I went into atrial fibrillation for 41 hours, the next day. . Both the VA and private doctors said to go to ER. Suzanne-a-La She Luch a Lay Ya was already in ER. No need for both of us to do so. See ya at the Thunder Parade at Tomahawk on Friday, Sept. 12, 2008 at 5:00 p.m. Let me know if you need Bikers or Veterans for McCain shirts & signs (McCainShop.com or info@gopshoppe.com).

On Sunday, Sept. 14, 2008 at 2:00 p.m. at Big Swedes, Lake Holcombe, I'll need help holding flags. We are dedicating a monument to Marines and Navy personnel.

Thank you for being a catalyst and Facilitator who empower Coalitions that enhance the quality of life. God Bless You!

Helpful Hints for the Open Road

Say "God Bless You", instead of "Have a good day or Have a good one or etc". Look people straight into their eyes and smile. You'll be surprised at the reciprocal and synergistic effect.

Especially those abrasive and rude convenience store or business clerks, they need Blessings. Everyone we meet may have problems worse than we.

Praying for those who transgress us is difficult - but healthy. It can get difficult when someone flips the bird or demonstrates road rage. "God Bless them - they need prayer desperately"

Another hint is to Salute with Prayer to all military, law enforcement, emergency medical services, and firefighter type individuals. You never know the next one they assist may be one of your loved ones - or you!

That sharp military salute by us Bikers show our patriotic solidarity. We are in the business of saving and enhancing lives too, especially when we are AMI (Accident Scene Management) trained and dedicated.

I. God speaks to us through others - God speaks to others through us!

When you think about this quote, so much happens to us each day through both subliminal and overt mediums. Messages sent are either by Angels in Disguise, or Angels in Training.

Just a real as are God's Angels, Satan has his demons too. Ya gotta watch out and pray for them. Eventually they'll figure out, their fragilities and overcome evil. Perhaps they'll find out on their deathbed or through battlefield religion. Then again, perhaps they'll not have the opportunity.

II. Pain, Failure Tragedy bring us closer to God -

Reminding us - Pray deep during good times too!
