

Milwaukee Rally September 2-5th

(pictures from 2009 rally)

Last fall during the Labor Day weekend I remember making it my goal to attend all major parts of the Milwaukee Rally. So from Thursday on I hit Hal's HD, Milwaukee HD, House of Harley and Suburban in Thiensville. Along with the State Fair grounds, downtown, the museum and the Bud pavilion on Saturday night. Is it worth all the running? I would have to answer that with a resounding yes!

All the places have vendors, music and food. But the best thing is the other riders from all over that you can meet. Young and old all enjoying the lifestyle.

This year again you have many rides to choose from including the Great Women's Pie Ride that leaves from the State Fair Grounds at noon Saturday along with a huge motorcycle gear sale with bike corral. You can go also check out Wisconsin Rally 2010 at the Sate Fair Budweiser Pavilion that has doings Friday-Sunday. www.budpavilion.com

Even if you can only make it to Milwaukee for a single day, I can guarantee you won't be disappointed. Check out the rally site for ALL the event schedules. [www.milwaukee rally.com](http://www.milwaukee rally.com)
